Dear Parents and Carers,

RE: Easter Holiday Revision

In addition to the revision booklet that all Year 11 students have to support their preparation for their upcoming exams, we will be keeping the academy building open next week to provide Year 11 students with a selection of revision sessions, outlined below.

To make the most of this time and to support us with our planning, please complete this sign-up form to indicate which sessions we can expect your child to attend. We ask that this form is please completed by Tuesday 26th March.

When your child arrives at the academy, they will be met in reception and sign in with the teacher leading the session. At the end of the sessions, they will be escorted back to the main reception to sign out and will not be able to re-enter the building. Students will not be able to go on and off site during their sessions.

Unfortunately, there will be no canteen facilities during this week, so students should bring a drink / snack or packed lunch to sustain them through the session.

If you would like to contact us about the Easter sessions, please email info@cowesec.org.
