The Week That Was...

This week at Cowes, we have been incredibly proud of our students as they took to the stage for our school production of Jason and the Argonauts. Performances throughout the week have showcased outstanding talent, creativity and teamwork, making it a fantastic celebration of the arts at CEC. Thank you so much to everyone who came to support our students.

Alongside this, students have continued to show focus and determination as we move towards the summer exam period, supported by the dedication of our staff and families. A brilliant week that truly reflects the strength and spirit of our school community.

From the Principal's Desk

By Rachel Kitley, Principal

Thank you for your continued support this term. It makes a real difference to our school. We appreciate the way you help your children arrive on time, ready to learn, and in full correct uniform each day. This supports a calm start to lessons and helps us maintain high expectations. A special thank you goes to our Year 8 families - every single Year 8 student was in full correct uniform in today's uniform check. This is an excellent achievement and we are grateful for your support.

We also want to share some of the things we are proud of this week. We are proud of our school production of Jason and the Argonauts. Our students have delivered brilliant performances throughout the week, showing real talent, teamwork and creativity. Tonight is the final performance, taking place in the Creative Area. Doors open at 6pm and the show begins at 6.30pm. Tickets are available on ScoPay or on the door. If you have not yet had the chance to see it, we highly recommend coming along - it has been a wonderful celebration of the arts in our school.

We are proud of our staff and students as we move towards the summer exams. This is an important time in the school year and our staff are giving extra time and support to help students with revision, further study and high-quality teaching. Our students are showing real determination and focus, and your support at home continues to be vital.

We are proud of our wider community. The Local Authority continues to talk about the strength of being a 'One Island' team. We share this belief. We value the close partnerships across local services, all working together to support children and families on the Island, and we are pleased to play our part in this.

Year 7 Textiles Work

9KBO have been inspired by the artist Helen Wells in their Art lessons and have started to create a textiles piece in response to her work. We can't wait to see the finished results!
