

Year 12

Autumn 1	Life stages and development What are the different life stages? How is development categorised? How do individuals develop physically, intellectually, emotionally and during socially during childhood? How do individuals develop physically, intellectually, emotionally and during socially during adolescence? How do individuals develop physically, intellectually, emotionally and during socially during young adulthood? What changes happen in relation to the PIES during middle adulthood? What impact do different factors have on the PIES throughout different life stages?
Autumn 2	Impacts of life events How do different life events impact the individual and their development?
Spring 1	Sources of support and the rights of service users in a health and social care setting How are services users supported through different life events and what rights do they have? How is a service user able to access support which meets their individual needs? How may an individual benefit from a person-centred approach in the health and social care industry? What are the consequences of person-centred values not being applied in the health and social care industry?
Spring 2	Communication skills What is the importance of effective communication in the health and social care industry? What impact might non-verbal communication have upon the service user? How can individual needs be met when communicating with service users? Why is this essential? What are the consequence of ineffective communications between the service user and service provider/s?
Summer 1	Interview practice What needs to be considered for an effective interview to take place between the service user and the service provider/s?
Summer 2	Type of therapies used in health and social care and types of creative activities and their benefits Types of creative activities and their benefits
Autumn 1	Type of therapies used in health and social care What types of therapies are accessible for the service user? What are the benefits of different therapies to the service user? Types of creative activities and their benefits What types of creative activities are accessible for the service user? What are the benefits of different creative activities to the service user?
Autumn 2	Factors affecting the selection of a creative activity and how to plan a creative activity to meet individual abilities What needs to be considered when planning a creative activity for individuals or groups in a care setting? How do I make a clear and appropriate plan for a creative activity to take place in a care setting?
Spring 1	Skills/Personal qualities needed to encourage participation and deliver a creative activity What skills do I need to deliver a creative activity successfully to participants in a care setting? Evaluation of a creative activity How do I evaluate the planning of a creative activity? How do I evaluate the delivery of a creative activity?
Spring 2	Protecting service users and service providers in health and social care settings How do we ensure safeguarding? How are infections prevented? What safety procedures and measures should be in place? How do different safety measures protect both service users and staff?
Summer 1	Exam preparation
Summer 2

Year 13